mcmillan

The regulated cannabis industry is booming and McMillan is at the forefront of developments in this industry. With one of the largest and most experienced industry groups in Canada, we can help you achieve success.

McMillan's leading Cannabis Practice Group provides innovative and practical solutions to clients in the cannabis industry.

The cannabis industry is quickly evolving in Canada, amid a complex and rapidly changing regulatory scheme, and McMillan is at the leading edge of these developments. McMillan's Cannabis Practice Group, one of the largest groups of its kind in Canada, works closely with a wide range of industry participants, including licensed producers, retailers, investors, technology and other service providers, to help them succeed in the cannabis industry.

Our group is made up of experienced professionals with significant in-depth knowledge. We understand the laws, regulations and business landscape of Canada's cannabis industry, and can provide you with valuable legal solutions for financing, accessing public markets, licensing and regulation, employment law and workplace issues, mergers and acquisitions, tax structuring and intellectual property matters, whether you are just entering the market or already established.

We help our clients succeed by:

- Structuring financing arrangements through private equity, public markets, and venture capital;
- Navigating the complex cannabis regulatory system;
- Assisting with regulatory approvals;
- Advising on mergers, acquisitions and divestitures;
- Assisting with labeling, advertising and distribution matters;
- Drafting comprehensive employment agreements and workplace policies in compliance with applicable laws;
- Advising on tax matters; and
- Assisting with patents, trademarks, licensing, outsourcing and strategic alliances.

Areas of Practice

We closely collaborate with our firm's corporate, securities, labour and employment, regulatory, intellectual property, tax, and government relations practices to provide you with the comprehensive solutions you need to help you to deal with whatever comes your way.

Business and Capital Markets

As a leading corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, and project finance firm, we advise cannabis companies of all sizes. We deliver an integrated group of services to meet your business objectives securely and with minimum liability, from advising on day-to-day business matters, to structuring, negotiation and closing complex mergers, acquisitions and financings, and public and private offerings of debt and equity securities. Our understanding of the regulatory landscape, and our relationships with regulatory bodies and exchanges, help us deliver unmatched value to our clients. We understand that every transaction is important to our clients, no matter how large or small. We listen to your needs and apply our experience, expertise, and commitment to help you achieve your objectives.

Labour and Employment

We regularly advise clients on all aspects of provincial and federal employment and labour law. We deliver practical counsel that is focused on protecting your interests while adhering to the laws that govern workplace relationships. While our focus is on helping implement employment and labour relations practices that minimize potential conflict, we recognize that disputes are often unavoidable. When they do happen, we provide you with strong, effective representation that advocates for your best interests, and have represented clients at all levels of provincial and federal courts, human rights tribunals, labour relations boards, arbitration, and government administrative bodies.

Regulatory and Licensing

The cannabis industry is complex, and regulations govern virtually every activity. The opportunities are significant, but so too are the challenges. Our lawyers combine a thorough knowledge of the applicable cannabis laws and regulations with a passion for helping our clients achieve market success. We guide clients through the Cannabis Act (Canada) licensing process, and routinely advise on compliance issues, such as labeling, advertising, distribution, import and export matters

Intellectual Property

As one of the leading intellectual property practices in Canada, we can help you properly leverage and protect your intellectual property. We craft sound intellectual property protection and enforcement strategies that help our clients maximize the value of their critical intangible assets. Our lawyers, patent and trademark agents, scientific consultants and law clerks bring the strong technical expertise required for a deep understanding of the industry and the intellectual property that our clients are protecting. We have the depth of experience and expertise to assist clients with all of their intellectual property needs.

We are experienced in all areas of trademark work, including pre-clearance, opposition and prosecution of trademark applications both in Canada and the United States, and have a network of foreign associates to file and prosecute foreign trademark applications internationally.

Tax

McMillan's tax lawyers provide tax advice on all manner of financings, mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations including spinouts, and international transactions pertaining to the cannabis industry. Our Tax Group includes individuals who have been recognized internationally as leading tax advisors, and our tax lawyers work seamlessly with our Cannabis Practice Group to provide advice as part of a comprehensive solution.
